

Shop Local – Think Local – Love Local

September News

As most of you are aware, I will be leaving the shop very soon (or I may have gone by the time this magazine is published!). I just wanted to say thank you to everyone that has supported the shop while I have been manager. It has been a privilege to be part of the shop's journey and I have loved being part of the Chiddingly community, it is so full of lovely, friendly people and it has been a hard decision to move on as I will miss everyone a lot! The shop and cafe are such an asset to Chiddingly and the surrounding area, it serves the best coffee for miles and I for sure will be back for that! If you live in the local area you are so lucky to have a community shop and café with such an incredible ethos, if you don't use the shop and café already you are missing out! Chiddingly shop is a treasure trove full of lots of lovely goodies, many of them selected from local suppliers and it's not as expensive as you might think. Save your fuel and support your local shop or maybe even offer to volunteer, the more volunteers the easier it is for everyone! I promise you'll make lots of friends and it'll give you a warm fuzzy feeling! The shop committee have been busy interviewing so a new manager will be appointed soon plus Laura, Lucy and lots of volunteers will still be here providing the shop with lots of stability and knowledge. I look forward to bumping into you all regularly when I visit! Best wishes, Sue

In other news! The shop will be open until 2pm on September 14th to support the Greening Chiddingly cycling event.

Christmas goodies have been ordered so not long until they will be available in the shop along with the order forms for Christmas turkeys!
